

From: Jim Saunders <jjsaunders@comcast.net>
Subject: CCA Announces Tele-Interviews
Date: August 28, 2007 10:00:57 AM PDT
To: lifeworks@gelardin.net
Reply-To: jjsaunders@comcast.net

Announcing Monthly One-hour Tele-Interview Beginning
Thursday, September 27, 2007 from 10 to 11 am.

Dr. Sally Gelardin interviews leading counselor entrepreneurs.
Find out how you and your clients can grow successful businesses.

Tele-Interview Description:

At the first CCA telsection, participants asked Could you put us in touch with counselors who have become successful entrepreneurs? We want to hear from them directly. In response, Dr. Sally Gelardin lined up for CCA leading counselor-entrepreneurs who have built successful businesses, such as Dr. Robert Chope, Richard Knowdell, Dr. Edward Colozzi, Carolyn Kalil, Donna Christner-Lile, and Martha Russell and more! In a series of tele-interviews conducted by Dr. Sal these entrepreneurial counselors will discuss how they started and built their businesses and respond to your questions. Reserve the following dates:

Registration information will be announced soon!

Thursday, Sept. 27, 2007
10 - 11 am

Dr. Robert Chope

Robert Chope is Professor of Counseling at San Francisco State University where he founded the Career Counseling Program. He is also the founder of the Career and Personal Development Institute in San Francisco, a practice that he has had for over 27 years. Dr. Chope is a Fellow of the National Career Development Association, (NCDA) a winner of the Robert Swan Lifetime Achievement in Career Counseling Award, a winner of the CDA outstanding career practitioner of the year award and the winner of the Morgan Vail Award for contributions to the counseling and development profession in California. He has written and presented extensively on the integration of personality and family influences on career decision-making.

Thursday, Oct. 25, 2007
10 - 11 am

Donna Christner-Lile

Donna Christner-Lile, CPC, NCC, DCC, SRES combines her experience and education from two life careers to serve as a planning resource for boomers, caregivers, and elders. With increasing numbers of boomers facing caregiver stress, downsizing, and retirement issues, as well as elders choosing to remain in their homes, Donna is uniquely positioned to provide services and resources through Christner-Lile Consulting. She co-facilitates, with Dr. Sally Gelardin, the Family Caregiver Counselor Certification Program and is author of Aging-in-Place: Living Safely in Your Own Home until you are 100 Plus. She is Executive Director of, Counseling Life Transitions, a non profit organization affiliated with Tri Valley Community Foundation. With a uniquely combined background of real estate, senior move management, and counseling, Donna has positioned herself to take a leading role as a trainer of counselors in caregiving and elder issues.

Thursday, Nov. 29, 2007
10 - 11 am

Richard Knowdell

Richard Knowdell established one of America's first successful corporate career development programs, instituted an internal employee assistance program, directed a Silicon Valley corporate training and employee development department, established an executive outplacement consulting firm and served as an executive coach. Richard L. Knowdell, MS, NCC, NCCC, CCMF, is President of Career Research & Testing, Inc., founded the Career Planning & Adult Development Network, and is past president of both CCDA and the Silicon Valley Chapter of IACMP. He received the Robert Wegmann Professionalism Award from the Association of Job Search Trainers (AJST) and the 2000 Generosity of Spirit Award from the International Career Development Conference.

Thursday, Jan. 31, 2008
10 - 11 am

Edward Colozzi

Edward Anthony Colozzi, Ed.D., is the owner of Career Development and Counseling Services in Winchester, MA. He has served in numerous teaching, counseling, and career development center coordinator positions at both graduate and undergraduate levels for approximately 30 years. Ed developed cost-effective systematic models of career guidance that emphasize a career/life focus in many traditional counseling programs. His work with "discovering client callings" involves Depth Oriented Values Extraction (DOVE). He is a licensed mental health counselor, a master career counselor and an NCDA Fellow. Ed was awarded the Presidential Recognition Award for his work with "Each One

Thursday, May 29, 2008
10 - 11 am

Carolyn Kalil

Carolyn Kalil is a counselor, a speaker, and the author of the best selling book, Follow Your True Color To The Work You Love. She is on a mission to inspire and assist others in discovering and using their unique gifts and talents. She has spoken to audiences throughout the United States and internationally on a variety of topics including, career, parenting, team building, relationships, and individual diversity. She is president of the National Employment Counseling Association (NECA). She offers a hands-on, interactive workshop to train counselors and other career and employment professionals to utilize the True Colors Personality System in the career development process.

Reach One membership campaign and the international teleconference. He wrote the first career life counseling book in Braille, Creating Careers of Confidence.

Thursday, July 31, 2008
10 - 11 am

Martha Russell

Martha Russell, M.S., NCC, is a Career Consultant and owner of Russell Career Services, currently located in Battle Ground, WA. Established in 1987 in Sacramento, CA, her career consulting practice includes staff development and career issues work with corporate clients, public agencies and individuals seeking career guidance and life planning. Martha is a frequent speaker and workshop facilitator on career management, including professional growth and workplace alignment issues. She has designed and facilitated workshops both nationally and internationally. Martha is a former president of the National Career Development Association.

Tele Interviewer:

Dr. Sally Gelardin (International and Multicultural Education) is a National Certified Counselor, Distance Credentialed Counselor, and Global Career Development Facilitator eLearning Instructor. She serves as a national and international trainer in Private Practice Online, the Career Development Facilitator and Instructor Curriculum, the Distance Job and Career Transition Coach Certification, and the Job Search Practitioner Certification. She is author of Starting and Growing a Business in the New Economy (NCEA, 2007) and The Mother-Daughter Relationship. She created Entrepreneurs Kits and the Job Juggler's Lifelong Employability Program for practitioners and their clients. She is a former president of the California Career Development Association and earned the NCEA Merit Award for significant contributions to the field of career development. As originator of Career Expert Audios with Dick Bolles, John Krumboltz, and other carefully selected career professionals, Dr. Sal is known for her friendly, yet probing interviews with leading Career Entrepreneurs.

Contact: Dr. Sally Gelardin
415.312.4294
email: sal@gelardin.net

543 Vista Mar Ave
Pacifica, California 94044

If you have special needs or require additional assistance contact CCA
Headquarters
toll free: 877-602-8059
email: admin@cacounseling.org

Forward email

✉ SafeUnsubscribe®

This email was sent to lifeworks@gelardin.net, by jjsaunders@comcast.net
Update Profile/Email Address | Instant removal with SafeUnsubscribe™ | Privacy Policy.

Email Marketing by

California Counseling Association | 543 Vista Mar Ave | Pacifica | CA | 94044